Meet your future international business partners...

ecobuild

Tuesday 20 - Thursday 22 March 2012
ExCel London www.ecobuild.co.uk

A programme delivered by BSK-CIC

Ecobuild is one of the largest events in the world for sustainable design, construction and the built environment. Run over three days, Ecobuild is free to attend and boasts more than 1300 exhibitors showcasing an extraordinary variety of products and services, and attracts more than 40,000 visitors.

During the second day of the Ecobuild show, you will have the chance to meet potential business partners from across Europe through a dedicated matchmaking event, designed to create real business opportunities.

How does a matchmaking event work?

It's simple!

1. Register online for free at: www.ecobuild.b2b-match.com.
2. View profiles of companies attending.
3. Select those you would like to meet.
4. We will then arrange your meetings and send you your itinerary.

What's in it for me?

- Whether you are looking to increase your sales, find a supplier, distributor or manufacturer, or perhaps you're interested in finding new technologies or innovative products for the UK market, a matchmaking event could help you.
- Save your time and money on searching and get to meet potential business partners and decision makers, face-to-face, in 30 minute sessions.
