

Enterprise Europe Network is the largest European network supporting SMEs innovation, internationalisation and competitiveness.

The Network provides integrated services to inform companies on EU legislation and funding, to offer advice on how to develop an innovative idea and to access a market, to help them find new business and technological partners abroad.

Launched in 2008 by the European Commission, it operates in over 50 countries through 600 organisations (Chambers of commerce, Regional development Agencies, Technology and innovation centres, Research institutes...), grouped into local consortia.

Eurosportello Chamber of commerce of Ravenna belongs to the Network within the SIMPLER consortium, covering the 6 partners from Lombardy and Emilia Romagna regions.
